|                         | Using a strategy screen can help you identify whether a potential new opportunity is right for your organization. This article shows how to evaluate whether new initiatives or existing programs serve a purpose that aligns with your mission.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Description             | The decision of what to do and what not to do is one of the most helpful strategic skillsets for any nonprofit. How can you know what is and what isnâ€™t important when considering your options? Using a Strategy Screen can help you tell whether a potential new opportunity is right for your organization or even help evaluate whether an existing initiative or program continues to serve its purpose. Itâ€™s just a matter of asking the right questions to find the right direction. |
